Eligibility Requirements

1. The SIU Scholarship is open to all new students only.
2. Applicant must only use the latest (current year) official results to apply for SIU Scholarship.
3. Meeting the minimum criteria does not automatically guarantee the applicant a scholarship. It is subject to approval by Shinawatra University.
4. The applicant is entitled to only ONE of the scholarships tabled in this brochure.
5. Scholarships are awarded on a first-come, first-served basis.
6. Late applications will not be entertained.

Scope of Scholarship

1. The SIU Scholarship is only applicable to tuition fees.
2. The award is only valid for the programme in which the applicant has enrolled in and for the applicant's duration of study at the SIU campuses.
3. The scholarship is disbursed based on the length of the semester, course load/credits/subjects.

Non-Application of Scholarship

1. The scholarship is NOT exchangeable for cash or other alternatives.
2. The scholarship is exclusive of other fees and charges such as application, registration, support, international student management, deposit, insurance, students administrative, visa renewal, resource, assessment and franchise fees to partner universities (where applicable), all of which must be borne by the successful applicant.
3. The scholarship is not transferable within SIU which are a part of the Shinawatra University network. A request for transfer is subject to the approval of SIU.
4. The scholarship is not applicable to the applicant's period of study at SIU overseas partner universities or participation at any Semester Abroad Program (SAP).

Obligations of the Scholarship Recipient

1. The scholarship recipient must be enrolled as a full-time student at Shinawatra University and must continue to be a student at SIU for the duration of the program.
2. Scholarship recipient must achieve and maintain the following academic requirements to continue enjoying the award: Full passes in all subjects
3. Should the recipient decide to leave their program and join other universities or colleges in Thailand, he/she must refund all scholarship amount received under this Scholarship throughout the tenure with SIU.
4. Should the recipient withdraw from the program due to medical reasons (medical report is required as evidence), SIU may consider waiving the refund.
5. Deferment due to medical reasons for 1 semester, the recipient shall be entitled to the same offer. However, any deferment for more than 1 semester will be subject to the availability of the offer.

The scholarship recipient is responsible to

- Make timely payment of fees in line with SIU policies and procedures, failing which SIU reserves the right to take the necessary action, including suspension and or termination of the scholarship. Reinstatement is subject to the discretion of SIU.
- Comply with all applicable rules & regulations stipulated by SIU.
- Maintain the required academic achievement, failing which the award may be suspended ("suspended semester"). There will be no refund of fees paid by the student for the suspended semester. The award may be reinstated for the subsequent semester provided that the award is still valid, failing which the award will be deemed TERMINATED.
- Take part in student activities or community projects specified by SIU and where required, SIU reserve the right to involve the recipient in media activities such as interviews, advertisement, photographs or other related activities for the purpose of promoting SIU as a leading private higher education institution.

Failure to comply with such request without reason(s) acceptable to SIU may result in suspension or termination of the award.
